

Valley Players Curtain Call September 2014

From the President:

Wow! It seems like summer has just gone by on a fast track. There is so much going on for this fall and next year, I'm not sure where to start, so I'll just begin.

- Our first general meeting will be October 7 in the East Center Lounge, so mark your calendar. We have lots of new information to share regarding plays and other opportunities for our members. In addition, to kick off the new year, both Julie Vance and Kent Blumenthal of the GVR will be featured at our meeting. If you have a question for either of them, please email it to me so I can get it to them in advance to give them an opportunity to have the answer that night.
- As you have probably heard, the fall play is "Always a Bridesmaid" directed by Roberta Konen. It is a great comedy. Auditions are Sunday, September 14 and Monday, September 15 at the West Center beginning 6 PM. There are six female parts available. Check your email for a Call to Audition sent Sept 1 from Bob Sandberg for more information or contact Roberta Konen.
- January 31 is a murder mystery dinner theater at the Country Club of Green Valley written by Regina Ford and Cal Lambert. A former member and now returning to our team, Janice Stoker will be directing. Auditions will be November 19 & 21, 6:00 pm.
- The spring play is "Goldman Girls" directed by Lee Curtis and is a comedy written by our own Cal Lambert.
- The one-act is set for two performances this spring, April 10 and 12. Wendy Drenning is directing the performance of "Bad Auditions by Bad Actors". And after an intermission we'll have a melodrama directed by John Crosthwaite. These will be fun performances and plenty of opportunity for all.
- And... We have Strolling Valley Players as busy as ever with gigs on Sept 20th and 21st, so don't miss the practice September 7 at 12:30 in the Acacia Room at Las Campanas

As many of you know, Pamela Reeder is officially our Sunshine person making sure any of our members needing a card from the club will get one. So if any of you know of a person in need, let Pamela know. Her email is pirukus@gmail.com and phone 648-6139.
